CLARKE ART CONSULTING

Art News • Art Procurement • Art Awareness

INTERNSHIP APPLICATION

The mission of Clarke Art Consulting is to promote art appreciation within the minority community, to inspire and assist with the process of art collecting, and to provide artists comprehensive, career consultation. It is through these three services—education, collection, and management—that Clarke Art Consulting seeks to assist minority artists and the community at large so that artists will have the resources and promotion necessary to further their artistic abilities and to showcase their art.

Clarke Art Consulting offers part-time internship positions to college students for non-credit. No stipends are provided, and no minimum hours are required. Undergraduates must have completed their freshman year to apply. We currently offer year round internships to qualified students interested in gaining hands-on experience and resume-building skills in the following areas:

- curate art exhibitions
- installation and deinstallation of art
- art administration
- marketing and public relations
- artist relations
- blogging (pertaining to visual art)

To be considered for an internship, applicants must mail a completed internship application along with a resume to:

Attn: Internship
Clarke Art Consulting
P.O. Box 4092
Glen Allen, VA 23058

Or email to info@clarkeartconsulting.com and type "Internship" in the subject line.
